

Computing

	I understand the 'SMART' e-safety rules.
	I can identify where I would go for help and support if I have any concerns.
	I can create a role play to demonstrate and share my knowledge and understanding of e-safety.

- use technology safely and respectfully, keeping personal information private; identify where to go for help and support when they have concerns about material on the internet or other online technologies.

Science

	I can identify which materials different everyday objects are made from.
	I can investigate how the shape of different solid objects can be changed.
	I can summarise which materials are best for floating.

Uses of everyday materials

- identify and compare the suitability of a variety of everyday materials, including wood, metal, plastic, glass, brick, rock, paper and cardboard for particular uses
- find out how the shapes of solid objects made from some materials can be changed by squashing, bending, twisting and stretching.

Music

	I can learn and remember the words to a range of pirate songs.
	I can recognise phrase lengths and know when to breathe.
	I can suggest ways in which I could improve on my performance.

- use voices expressively and creatively by singing songs and speaking chants and rhymes

DT – Pirate Toy

	I understand the product that I will plan and make. I can plan my product. I can list what I will need to make my product.
	I can use a range of tools and techniques for cutting, joining and fixing materials.
	I can evaluate the strengths and next steps of my finished product.

- build structures, exploring how they can be made stronger, stiffer and more stable
- explore and use mechanisms, in their products.

Term 4

Shiver Me Timbers!

History

	I understand that different groups of people from the past lived in different ways. I know where people and events fit within a chronological framework.
	I can explore the ways of life of famous pirates in the 1600s and 1700s.
	I can evaluate what life would have been like for pirates from the past.

- events beyond living memory
- the lives of significant individuals in the past - compare aspects of life in different periods

Geography

	I can list the world's 7 continents and 5 oceans and locate where pirates frequented.
	I can use compass points to navigate treasure maps .
	I can create my own treasure map.

Location Knowledge

- name and locate the world's 7 continents and 5 oceans